

Date: Friday April 15, 2016 from 12pm to 1:30pm

Location: Main Library, Nashville Public Library, 615 Church St, Nashville, TN 37219

Public Kickoff Meeting Agenda

---

12:00pm: Introduction, Mark Macy, Metro Public Works

12:05pm: Remarks by Mayor Megan Barry

12:20pm: Project Overview, WalknBike Project Team

12:30pm to 1:30pm: Public Open House/Input Stations

Public Input Stations

---

Station #1: Address Map

- Ask participants to place a dot to identify where they live

Station #2: Project Overview and Previous Planning Efforts

- Previous planning efforts (2008 Sidewalks & Bikeways Plan, nMotion, Nashville Next, etc.)
- Project schedule, planning process, goals and key outcomes

Station #3: Prioritization Overview and Visual Preference Survey

- Current prioritization methodology review and scoring criteria voting
- Visual preference options (bicycle facility types, streetscape amenities, etc.)

Station #4: Public Statements

- Large boards for the public to place sticky notes to answer the following questions:
  - Walking in Nashville is/should be...
  - Biking in Nashville is/should be...
  - I would walk/bike more if...

Station #5: Map Exercise

- Large poster of the comments received to date on the online interactive map
- Existing condition maps of the entire project area and downtown zoom to allow participants to comment and draw on (will use same graphics as the interactive map).
- Workstation available to view and comment on the interactive map

Station #6: User Survey

- Hard copy user survey's for participants to fill out during the open house
- Workstation available for people to fill out the on-line survey

